

Intro Bouzouki alone

2 x open top two strings to mark time

2 x E Esus4

[Verse 1]

E. Esus4. E. Esus4

In Oranmore in the county Galway

E. E. Asus2. B(open)

One pleasant evening in the month of May

E. Esus4 E Esus4

I spied a damsel she was young and handsome

E. B(open) E A E

Her beauty fairly stole my breath away

Pause

[Verse 2] GITARRE

E. Esus4. E. Esus4

We kept on walking, she kept on talking

E. E. Asus2. B(open)

'Til her father's cottage came into view

E. Esus4 E. Esus4

She said " Come in sir and meet my father

E. B(open) E A E

And play for him The Foggy Dew"

Pause

[Chorus]

E. Asus4. E. Asus4

She wore no jewels, no costly diamonds

E. E. Asus4. B(open)

No paint, no powder, no none at all

E. Asus4. E. Asus4

But she wore a bonnet, with a ribbon on it

E. B(open). E. A. E. kein A!, sofort weiter!

And 'round her shoulders was a Galway shawl

2 x E Esus4

[Verse 3] GITARRE + WHISTLE

E. Esus4. E. Esus4

I played "The Blackbird" and "Stacks of Barley"

E. E. Asus2. B(open)
"Rodney's Glory" and "The Foggy Dew"

E. Esus4. E. Esus4
She sang each note like an Irish Linnet

E. B(open) E A E
When the tears fell from her eyes so blue

[Chorus]

Solo WHISTLE SOLO

E. Esus4. E. Esus4
'Twas very early, all in the morning

E. E. Asus4. B(open)
I hit the route for old Donegal

E. Esus4. E. Esus4
Said she, 'goodbye sir', she cried and kissed me

E. B(open) E A E
But my heart remains with the Galway shawl

2 x [Chorus]